

RED RIBBON WEEK

October 23-31 2007

LOOK AT ME, I'M DRUG FREE!

The Red Ribbon Campaign started after drug traffickers in Mexico City murdered Enrique "Kiki" Camarena, a DEA agent, in 1985. Friends and neighbors wore red badges of satin in his honor. This began the continuing tradition of wearing and displaying red ribbons as a symbol of intolerance towards the use of illegal drugs. The mission of the Red Ribbon Campaign is to present a unified and visible commitment toward the creation of a DRUG - FREE AMERICA. It is now the oldest and largest drug prevention program in the nation reaching millions of young people, families, and communities during the week. Red Ribbon Week is on October 23 - 31, 2007 with the theme: "LOOK AT ME, I'M DRUG FREE!"
